

Country	High Priority Ports	Weapons Allowed Aboard	Armed Security Transit Allowed	Special Requirements	Responsible Authority Designated by the Government	Comments
Highest Priority Ports Provided By Industry
Djibouti	Djibouti	Yes	Yes	Armed Security as part of the crew permitted without fee. Embarking or disembarking security teams in Djibouti results in a fee. Transit to and from an airport with weapons also results in a fee. Carriage of arms aboard the vessel into and out of port requires no fee.	Djibouti Maritime Security Services (DMSS)	DMSS escort in country. $5K fee for one-time transit through Djibouti to port. Other fees for more frequent transit.
Oman	Muscat, Salalah	Yes	Yes	Contact Local Port Authority	Commercial port agent in country (Salalah)	Contact Local Port Authority - There is an established procedure in place (Salalah) Requires customs declaration; in bond
Egypt	Suez

Brazil and Trinidad Tobago used for refueling
China and Mexico used for dry-dock

Kenya	Mombasa	Yes	Yes	Permit Required	Kenyan Commissioner of Police	While possible to get permission to transport to/from the sea-port, the Superintendent of police indicated it is more difficult than carrying them in on a vessel. An established procedure is in place; contact either Global Freight Logistics phone (+254 20) 8277777, 822238/723/455/178 email arbimussani@globalfreight.co.ke or info@globalfreight.co.ke or SDV Transami Kenya, LTD phone (+254 20) 642100, email Sue.west@bollore.com
South Africa	Durban	Yes	Yes	All firearms in South Africa must be registered, a temporary import export license is required. For transport to/from an airport an import/export license is required.	South African Police Services; Registrar of Firearms	Advance application to registrar of Firearms; Regulations on air transport vary depending on weapons type.
Sudan	Port Sudan
Other High Priority Ports Provided By Industry
United Arab Emirates	Fujairah	No	No			Persons or vessels entering with arms will be arrested.
Singapore	Singapore	Yes	Yes	Conditional upon declaration	Singapore Police Force; Maritime and Port Authority	Singapore indicated that arms would be allowed on a case-by-case basis. If disembarking crews would have to make arraignments with Singapore police
Bangladesh	Chittagong
Brazil
Cameroon	Doula
China

Brazil and Trinidad Tobago used for refueling
China and Mexico used for dry-dock

Mexico
Pakistan	Karachi, Port Quasim
Sierra Leon	Freetown
Tanzania	Dar Es Salaam			Cutoms declaration; in bond	Ministry of Home Affairs
Trinidad & Tobago
Other Countries in receipt of the DOS Demarche who have responded
Latvia		No	No
Mauritius		Yes	Yes	Customs Declaration required	Attorney General; Prime Minister's offices	Weapons must be declared, Customs would confirm that weapons are in the custody of the crew, and that same weapons are aboard upon departure, or weapons could be turned over to customs while in port. Armed Security transiting would require Government transport of the weapons
Sweden		No	No	Although there are no provisions for non-military carriage of weapons, the desk officer, Security Department, Peace Support Operations Section , the Swedish MFA indicated that "each individual case" to bring firearms into country would be evaluated.

Brazil and Trinidad Tobago used for refueling
China and Mexico used for dry-dock

Malta		Yes	Yes	Weapons must be declared to Customs upon arrival at Freeport. If the weapons are left on the ship the only possible requirement would be to place the weapons "under bond" while the ship remains in port. For transport to/from airport contact Malta police.	MALTA Police Weapons Office; Customs; Civil Aviation Authority	Established procedure for transporting weapons to/from the airport and the Freeport in order to join commercial vessels. It was indicated that this is a relatively common practice facilitated by contacting the Malta Police Weapons Office who in turn issue a special permit to transport the weapons.
Nicaragua		Yes	Yes	Weapons must be declared, personnel must have permission to carry weapons. Security Teams would have to surrender arms to Nicaraguan authorities upon entering port.

Other Countries in receipt of the Demarche who have not Responded

Bahrain
Canada
Cape Verde
Chile
Columbia
Cuba
Dominican Republic
EU
Haiti
Indonesia
Jordan
Kuwait

Brazil and Trinidad Tobago used for refueling

China and Mexico used for dry-dock

Philippines
Venezuela
Yemen

Brazil and Trinidad Tobago used for refueling
China and Mexico used for dry-dock